Message from the President

As we compile this third Annual Report, I'm moved by all that has been accomplished since 2019. A wide variety of activities and projects can be seen looking back through our Annual Reports and on our website, with so much more to come.

But in the end, it's about individuals and how our mission enhances their lives. We are so thankful for individuals and the talents contributed by our team of volunteers. Each and every member and volunteer is integral to achieving our mission and making our world a better place.
